Congress will re-assemble on Monday to do nothing, or worse. THE Legislature will meet at Harris burg next Tuesday.

THE Democratic State Central Committee will meet at Harrisburg on Tues day.

DEMOGRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION. -Fred. O. Prince, of Holton, Secretary of the National Democratic Committee, has issued an official call for the meeting of said committee, to be held in Washington on the 22d of February, to name the time and place for holding the next the next the time and place for holding the next th Democratic National Convention.

POPE "OUT OF THE SADDLE."

President Johnson, as was some time ago intimated would be the case, has removed the "veracious" Satrap Pope, and appointed Gen. Meade in his stead. Gen. Ord has also "gone by the board," and will be succeeded by Gen. McDowell. The President is thus continuing to demonstrate that, so far as he is concerned, the laws shall be executed in the interests of the country, and not solely for the benefit of unprincipled Northern adventurers and ignorant Southern negroes For this additional evidence of the Pres ident's genuine patriotism, the people cannot but feel grateful. Radical edi tors and leaders may howl, but their bluster will be of little account now. Their motives, (office and plunder,) being understood, their denunciations will hurt notody. The President is right, and as long as he is so the PEOPLE will stand

DISASTER AT SEA.-The steamship Raleigh, which left New York Saturday week, with the usual number of passen gers, for New Orleans, was burned twen ty miles off the coast of Charleston on Tuesday. Eighteen of her passengers and crew arrived in a tug at Charleston on Thurday. Thirteen lives are supposed to have been lost, Capt. Marshman included, and twenty-four persons, who were last seen in the boat or clinging to pieces of the wreck, are missing. The Raleigh was a large sidewheel steamer belonging to the Atlantic Coast Mail steamship Company. - When we visited Charleston, in 1860, on the steamer "Keystone State," Capt. Marshman had command of that fine vessel. He was reputed as a firstclass officer, and certainly had the bearing of an intelligent and well-bred gentleman. His admirable management of the steamer during the heavy storm we encountered on the return trip, won high encomiums from all the passengers Resolutions of thanks were adopted, and published in the Philadelphia papers We most devoutly hope he has been

Now know what demagogue pledges are worth-Will mind them, though never so late. THE RADICAL'S LAMENT. The other day, I chanced to hear A very loyal gent Bémour himself most bitterly, And thus he did lament:

"Now all our loving countrymen That feeling hearts possess, Come listen to our tale of woe, And pity our distress. Our party was of power posses Until the other day; But now our strength is growing less. And failing day by day.

And, oh! If you could hear our groans
And see our tearful faces
Whene'er the bitter thought occurs That we may lose our places. We boasted of our loyalty, But lately they have found it out— 'Twas only 'make believe.' And then we set the negro up. And hoped we might regain our power By riding on his back,

Have voted his rejection And if we lose the negro vote We lose the next election. We tried to squeich the President, Despite the people's 'No;'
We did our best to frighten him, But it was all 'no go."

But many of the States of late

There's General Grant might help of it anybody can;
If he would but his creed declare, And speak out like a man. If things go on from bad to worse, As lately they've begun, We shan't electour President, And shall be all undone. Do help us, neighbors, all you can, And give your hearty wishes That we may still in power remain And share the loaves and fishes."
